PETITIONING THE COURT

TO MODIFY THE CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION AS FOLLOWS:

Be monitored while under supervision with location monitoring technology at the discretion of the probation officer, which shall be utilized for the purposes of verifying compliance with any court-imposed condition of supervision. The offender shall pay all or part of the costs of location monitoring based upon their ability to pay as directed by the court and/or probation officer.

The defendant/offender shall reside in a transitional housing facility designated by the probation/pretrial services officer for a period of 90 days, or until the probation officer approves an alternative residence. The transitional housing may be provided through a halfway house, if available, or through lodging arranged by the probation/pretrial services office if necessary.

CAUSE

Mr. Bonds, a registered sex offender, was released from custody on June 4, 2010. At this juncture, he has not secured a Jessica-Law compliant residence. Initially, it was thought that Mr. Bonds was eligible to reside in a Residential Recovery Center (RRC) upon his release; however, it has now been determined that Mr. Bonds does not qualify for an RRC placement, as his risk assessment indicates that his risk level is too high for the RRC to accept him. Thus, in order to protect the community while providing Mr. Bonds needed time to secure necessary funds and an approved residence, we are requesting that Mr. Bonds reside in a transitional housing facility designated by the probation officer for up to 90 days, or until he is able to secure an appropriate residence which is Jessica Law compliant. In addition, the offender will be monitored via location monitoring technology as directed by the probation officer. Mr. Bonds has agreed with this modification by way of signature on a Waiver of Hearing form.

Respectfully submitted,
